IOWA YEARLY MEETING (CONSERVATIVE)
MIDYEAR MEETING - APRIL 25 & 26, 2020

“ENGAGING COMMUNITY, CONFLICT AND CONNECTION”
Presenter: Cheryl Sutton

Join us as Cheryl draws on her experience as a Friend and Alternatives to Violence Project workshop facilitator to lead us in an exploration of the purpose, qualities and value of Quaker community, and invites us to explore how we can deepen our engagement with our meeting community. We’ll also explore how Quakers deal with conflict, where we do it well and ways we can do better. Finally, we’ll consider how the connections of community inform how Friends show up in the world, and the gifts and fruits of such a Community.

Place: Bear Creek Meetinghouse, near Earlham, Iowa
18058 Bear Creek Road, rural Earlham
(1 mile N of I-80 Earlham exit 104, then 1/8 mile E)
