

IOWA YEARLY MEETING (CONSERVATIVE) MIDYEAR MEETING - APRIL 25 & 26, 2020

“ENGAGING COMMUNITY, CONFLICT AND CONNECTION”

Presenter: Cheryl Sutton

Join us as Cheryl draws on her experience as a Friend and Alternatives to Violence Project workshop facilitator to lead us in an exploration of the purpose, qualities and value of Quaker community, and invites us to explore how we can deepen our engagement with our meeting community.

We'll also explore how Quakers deal with conflict, where we do it well and ways we can do better. Finally, we'll consider how the connections of community inform how Friends show up in the world, and the gifts and fruits of such a Community.

The Midyear Planning Committee, with direct input from Midyear Meeting presenter Cheryl Sutton, has felt clear to move Midyear Meeting to an online format with Zoom technology, with support from a few experienced IYMC Friends between now and the first session on 4/25. NOTE: Zoom technology also allows participants to call in from a landline or flip phone.
